F O R W A R D

I will praise our ancestors,
 each in their own time,
 whose virtues have not been forgotten;
 their rich inheritance remains in their families,
 their heritage with their descendants.
 Through God's covenant with them
 their family endures,
 their posterity for their sake,
 and for all times their progeny will endure,
 their glory will never be blotted out.
 Their bodies are peacefully laid away,
 but their name lives on and on,
 at gatherings their wisdom is retold
 and the assembly proclaims their praise.

The Book of Sirach 44:1, 10-15.

Know that the Lord is God,
 He made us, Fis we are,
 His people, the FLOCK He tends.

Psalm 100

Dedicated to the woman who taught her children to have great respect and appreciation for their elders and ancestors:

I am indebted to many people for their contributions to this story but I must single out a number:

ANNI KOCH, genealogist of Bruehl, West Germany, who assisted me in research at the Nordrhein-westfaelisches Personstandsarchiv, Rhineland, in October 1984 and continued to send important documents and information.

BAERBEL JOHNSON of Salt Lake City, who has done extensive research on the Flock Family at Pulheim-Stommel and in the Mormon genealogical Library of Salt Lake City.

MARLENE FLOCK of Cashton, Wisconsin who has accumulated much information on the Flocks on St. Mary Ridge.

ALICE SCHALLER of Cashton, who has done extensive study of the first settlers on St. Mary Ridge.

THE PASTORS who allowed me to examine parish records.

THE REGISTER OF DEEDS PERSONNEL in Wisconsin and Minnesota for their cooperation and assistance.

THOMAS UDULUTSCH, my globe-trotting brother, for the use of his word-processor and office facilities to prepare this text.

TO ALL who have taken the time to answer my letters and send pictures, my sincerest thanks.

FOR THE MISTAKES which are bound to occur in a work such as this, my humble regrets.

Irvin Udulutsch, o.f.m.cap., son of SOPHIE FLOCK, who commissioned this work.
